passed away January 16th.

I am grateful for the kind expressions of sympathy you've shown my family and me. I'm thankful for each card, phone call, foods to nourish, hugs and all your silent prayers that supported us in faith and love. We truly appreciated your warmth and comfort.

I know this is the defining work of a church family but until one becomes the recipient of such love and support it is not fully realized. God's blessings to you.

Mary Anne

My special friends, for the last 10.5 months I have been treated for Cancer. However, for the last 10.5 months I have been treated with encouraging words from the wonderful families, individuals, ministers, members of Council and the children of our church family. You regularly hug to encourage me and send letters, cards of hope, and inspiring faith. I cannot begin to tell how much the more than 300+ cards have meant to me. You all are such a caring and supportive group if one of your "team" has a setback you are the catalysts for sharing God's teachings. My spirit remains up-beat with determination to overcome this challenge. May God continue to bless our congregation for the special people you are as I realize "I am not alone".

*With a grateful heart.
Bob Graham*

Online Prayer Chain

Our e-mail prayer chain has proven to be a source of comfort to many. If you have a prayer request for a family member, a friend or for yourself, just send me an e-mail and as soon as it is on its way, over 200 members of our church will be praying for you. It's what we do, right? Or perhaps there's a new baby or other blessed event you'd like us to join you in giving thanks to God for. Maybe you are not presently receiving prayer requests and would like to be included in this ministry. Whatever....just send me an e-mail at chatwpat@att.net to take advantage of this valued ministry of our church. -Pat Kitner

Give the Easy Way!

Online giving, and giving by text message, is now available through Engage. It takes just a couple of minutes to set up a giving account with Engage which will thereafter synch automatically with your giving record at CUCC, or you can give as a "guest" (which will not synch with your giving record at the church.) Just text 630-233-8291 to establish an account and make a gift, or go online to <https://engage.suran.com/cucc>. In either case, when you are asked for an e-mail address, be sure to give the one we use for you at the church.

It's this easy... Text 630-233-8291 with a message that says "contribution" and the amount you want to give "$_____". In reply, you'll receive a link at which you can "create an account," or elect to "continue as a guest." Choosing "create an account," enter a user name. You will be sent a code by e-mail to use in establishing a unique password. Once you have a giver account and profile, go to the menu and select "gift." Once established, you can just text the number 630-233-8291 with the message "Contribution $_____" skipping all the other steps. Your gift will automatically show up in your record with CUCC.

CHILDREN'S LIBRARY NOW OPEN

Visit as often as you can to find board books for toddlers, 100's of excellent picture books, many of your favorite series such as The Magic Tree House, Ralph the Mouse, Junie B. Jones, Amelia Bedelia and Harry Potter. You can walk straight to a section on stories of the Old Testament, Bibles and Jesus. There are books of science, influential people, poetry, animals and so much more. Come to read, learn and enrich your lives with books! "Zee you soon!"

March 8: LITTLE FIRES EVERYWHERE by Celeste Ng; discussion at the home of Trish and JT Thompson

The runaway New York Times bestseller from the bestselling author of Everything I Never Told You, a riveting novel that traces the intertwined fates of the picture-perfect Richardson family and the enigmatic mother and daughter who upend their lives. In Shaker Heights, a placid, progressive suburb of Cleveland, everything is planned – from the layout of the winding roads, to the colors of the houses, to the successful lives its residents will go on to lead. And no one embodies this spirit more than Elena Richardson, whose guiding principle is playing by the rules. Enter Mia Warren – an enigmatic artist and single mother – who arrives in this idyllic bubble with her teenaged daughter Pearl, and rents a house from the Richardsons. But Mia carries with her a mysterious past and a disregard for the status quo that threatens to upend this carefully ordered community. When old family friends of the Richardsons attempt to adopt a Chinese-American baby, a custody battle erupts that dramatically divides the town--and puts Mia and Elena on opposing sides. Suspicious of Mia and her motives, Elena is determined to uncover the secrets in Mia's past. But her obsession will come at unexpected and devastating costs. Little Fires Everywhere explores the weight of secrets, the nature of art and identity, and the ferocious pull of motherhood – and the danger of believing that following the rules can avert disaster.

May 17th: LESS by Andrew Sean Greer; discussion at the home of Donna and Tony Giamberdino

What would possibly go wrong? Arthur Less will almost fall in love in Paris, almost fall to his death in Berlin, barely escape to a Moroccan ski chalet from a Saharan sandstorm, accidentally book himself as the (only) writer-in-residence at a Christian Retreat Center in Southern India, and encounter, on a desert island in the Arabian Sea, the last person on Earth he wants to face. Somewhere in there: he will turn fifty. Through it all, there is his first love. And there is his last. Because, despite all these mishaps, missteps, misunderstandings and mistakes, Less is, above all, a love story. A scintillating satire of the American abroad, a rumination on time and the human heart, a bittersweet romance of chances lost, by an author The New York Times has hailed as “inspired, lyrical,” “elegiac,” “ingenious,” as well as “too sappy by half,” Less shows a writer at the peak of his talents raising the curtain on our shared human comedy. WINNER OF THE PULITZER PRIZE

Runner-up novels in the book club voting: THE ALICE NETWORK by Kate Quinn and THE WOMEN IN THE CASTLE by Jessica Shattuck

Pop Tabs for Ronald McDonald House

Keeping Families Together.

Please keep collecting pop tabs for RMH; to help fund this ministry. No cost to you - just save them off the tops of beverage cans, soup cans, etc., and bring them to church. Put small amounts in the little green bag on the hutch outside of the office, or larger amounts in my mailbox in the office.

Thank you for caring and sharing!

Mark your Calendars for First Communion Sunday

First communion is scheduled to be during the worship service on March 3rd for all of our second graders. In preparation for first communion, they will have two lessons in the month of February on the 17th and 24th.

The first lesson is on February 17th during Sunday school hours. Here we will learn all about the first communion, what taking communion means and how this is the next step in their spiritual journey. On February 24th, our second graders will have their second lesson during Sunday school hours as well. This lesson will be an actual re-enactment of the first communion. The children will get a chance to practice taking communion with pita bread and apple juice in ornate cups around a candle lit table. Then on March 3rd we will ask all second grade children to remain in the service with their parents. Third graders through 5th grade will join us towards the end of the service to watch them take their first communion and partake in communion themselves.

While the classes aren't mandatory, we highly encourage your children to be in attendance at least one of those days. Please let me know via email, Christianed@cuccstc.org, by February 20th if your child will be in attendance on March 3rd for first communion Sunday.

Calling All Youth

Do you have an artistic child at the CUCC? Do they love to draw or love doodling in their notebooks? Then we've got something for you!

We are holding a contest to see who can design the best bulletin cover for our Easter worship services. The winner will have their art displayed on the front cover of the Easter Sunday bulletins for all to see. The rest of the submissions will be displayed in the parlor Easter Sunday for your viewing pleasure.

All submissions are due no later than April 7th. The winner will be announced in the weekly e-mail blast on April 11th. We ask that you design a bulletin cover on a regular size white piece of paper, 8 1/2 by 11. Submissions can be given to Miss Kim directly or dropped off in the church office. We can't wait to see the creative work you come up with!

Questions? Ask Miss Kim (christianed@cuccstc.org)

Thanks to everyone who volunteered at Feed My Starving Children on January 19th and the Northern Illinois Food Bank on January 26th in honor of the life of Martin Luther King. At the Feed My Starving Children event, we were part of a group that packed enough food to provide 13,000 meals with our volunteers' meals being designated for the country of Djibouti (located on the horn of Africa). At the Northern Illinois Food Bank, we were part of a group that packed 13,660 pounds! of potatoes ultimately providing 11,383 meals. Thanks for making a difference in the lives of others! "Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world: indeed, it's the only thing that ever has." -Margaret Mead.

Night Ministry Helps Lazarus House!

We spent the week going back and forth with the Night Ministry staff, our faithful volunteers and the weather man about our Night Ministry trip to Chicago on Saturday, January 26. When it was learned that the Night Ministry Health Outreach bus was going to cancel, it was the decision maker for us! Not to worry! None of the contributions went to waste! Carleen Bart's chili and the sandwiches provided by Ellie McFeeley were gratefully accepted by our friends at Lazarus House. All the cookies were put in the freezer to be used for our next trip and the snack bags, fruit and water are safely stored downstairs.

The 100 plus pairs of socks, and 4 or 5 huge bags of men's and women's coats that we had planned to give away during our visit will be taken into the Night Ministry office in Chicago.

Thank you to everyone who donated food, to our faithful organizing team and to the stalwart volunteers who waited until the last minute to see if they needed to get out their snow shoes! We always can find ways to demonstrate our love for God and neighbor regardless of the wintry weather!

Illinois Conference Outdoor Ministries

Excitement is building because, in the next few months, Pilgrim Park has plans of kicking off a campaign to raise funds for an addition to the Conference Center. While they are making some much needed improvements, they are still in need of our support. There are three ways in which you may now support our church camp.

The first is financially. Whether you give $20 to scholarships or $2,000 to the operating budget, your gift will be greatly appreciated.

The second is putting your own skill to work. If you are or know someone who has a special set of skills, assistance is always needed. It could be helping to open flowerbeds in the Spring, updating plumbing/electrical, or sitting at a sewing machine. There is enough work for any skill level.

And the third and most important way is to utilize the sites. Remember, it's not just a summer camp. Visit the website at www.il-outdoorministries.org to see the great accommodations for retreats for all ages.

Feel free to give them a call at anytime to set up a tour to see all the updates and find out what's available for a few days or a week. Call Mitch at 815.447.2390 or email PilgrimParkManager@gmail.com

You could always join the Pilgrim Park Century Club - a yearly commitment of a $100 membership fee which helps support improvements for Pilgrim Park that are not funded through the operational budget.

Send any contributions to: Outdoor Ministries, 26449 1340 N. Avenue, Princeton IL 61356.
